

WCN presents the widest repertoire of short reports with cultural, sports, musical and commemorative party themes.

Short report of a minute and thirty seconds, which will introduce the social and economic areas of the more than 2,400 municipalities that make up the Mexican Republic. More than 200 correspondents that make up the largest network of a digital television channel, that work throughout the year so as not to lose events, and always have the best story to tell.

LA VIDA
MÉXICO

