

Mexico tells us its history through its Legends.

Since colonial times, dozens of terrifying legends and myths have become part of Mexican history and culture.

With an agile, experiential program concept, we offer you the narrative of a series of the best horror stories with our host, Marco Orozco.

Enjoy and learn through different characters, the stories that every Mexican should know.

We challenge you to follow us in our capsules where a chilling sensation will run through your entire body.

*Each week a story will be told through diferent characters.
