

Nobody like Yordi Rosado, the highest Spanish-speaking figure on television, with the most current and innovative content.

One of the most charismatic hosts, Yordi Rosado, has a new concept of interview, visiting unknown places, but with well-known people.

In a happy and spontaneous 30 minute chat, Yordi manages to create an atmosphere of trust and intimacy, where guests tell their stories and experiences.

In a great television experience, Yordi manages to break with a traditional interview structure, showing experience, skill and his well-known mischief in each question. Enjoy the first interview of this great program with Martha Higareda.
